Alfredo Cospito

Alfredo Cospito (born 1967) is an Italian anarchist. In 2012 he was sentenced to 10 years for kneecapping the head of the Italian nuclear power company Ansaldo Nucleare. Whilst imprisoned, he was convicted of the 2006 bombing of a Carabinieri barracks in which nobody was harmed. The Supreme Court of Cassation later increased the sentence to life without parole. In 2022, Cospito was placed into the 41-bis prison regime, which involves solitary confinement for 22 hours every day. In protest, he began a hunger strike in October 2022. The Supreme Court rejected the appeal against his placement in the 41-bis system in March 2023, then the following month the Constitutional Court ruled in favour of allowing the reduction of Cospito's sentence from life imprisonment to 23 years. In response to the latter, he stopped his hunger strike after 180 days on 19 April 2023; he had lost 50 kg. Cospito commented in court "There is no evidence that we placed the bombs in Fossano [...] Anarchists do not make indiscriminate massacres, because anarchists are not the state".

Amadeu Casellas Ramón

In 1976 Amadeu came into contact with anarchism and began a prolific career as a bank robber. The money went to different causes and he soon earned the nickname "Robin Hood". He was first imprisoned in 1979 and has since been in and out of prison over the years, serving long sentences despite having no blood crimes behind him. After having exceeded his maximum sentence he began a hunger strike with the support of comrades from the Anarchist Black Cross and the CNT. Amadeu was released in 2010, in poor health but full of strength. Unfortunately, in June 2019 Amadeu returned to prison, accused of participating in a theft of 300,000 euros, a fact he has always denied. In an interview he gave at the end of December he stated that prisons "have gone back 30 or 40 years in rights". He remained behind bars, on remand, for about two years. But, after his trial (in which he was asked to serve 8 years in prison), the Provincial Court decided to release him, waiting for the sentence to be passed and for it to become final. Finally, he was sentenced to 4 years in prison. Amadeu had to go back to prison in June 2023.

Andreas Krebs

Andreas is a former rebel long-term prisoner, who was 16 years behind bars until October 2014. He helped build the prisoners' union (GG/BO) behind bars, led various hunger strikes against the lousy conditions in prison and took part in a solidarity hunger strike for prisoners in Greece. In autumn 2014, after his release, he met his current wife Jutta. Both decided to spend a quiet retirement in the south of Italy. At the end of December 2016 there was a dispute with his former employer, who attacked Andreas and strangled him. Andreas stabbed him in self-defence with a penknife. The employer died in the hospital three days later under mysterious circumstances, although it was said shortly after the act that he would survive. In April 2019 he was sentenced in Italy to 24 years for intended murder. Andreas was diagnosed with kidney cancer. Despite this, he did not receive any treatment in prison. After a long struggle, he has finally been transferred to a German prison to be closer to friends and family.

In particular, the attacks inserted in this investigation include the parcel-bombs sent to the CPT's [detention centres for immigrants] director in Modena in May 2005, to the traffic-cops barracks in Torino-San Salvario and to the chief-police of Lecce (claimed by FAI/Narodnaja Volja), the explosive device against the RIS barracks [carabinieri forensics] in Parma (October 24, 2005, claimed by FAI/Cooperativa Artigiana Fuoco e Affini-occasionalmente spettacolare), the parcel-bomb sent to the Mayor of Bologna Sergio Cofferati (November 2, 2005, claimed by FAI/Cooperativa Artigiana Fuoco e Affini-occasionalmente spettacolare), the devices against the carabinieri cadets' barracks in Fossano (June 2, 2006, claimed by FAI/RAT-Rivolta Anonima e Tremenda), the devices placed in the Turin neighbourhood, Crocetta (March 7, 2007, claimed by FAI/RAT); among the other actions also the wounding of Adinolfi (May 7, 2012), despite the fact that two comrades have already been convicted and have publicly claimed this attack, to corroborate the crime of association. In June 2023 the Turin court of appeal established the extent of the convictions against Anna Beniamino, sentencing her to 17 years and 9 months.

Benni

Benni is accused of throwing an incendiary device at the thugs from the USK Dachau (German police unit) on Day X in Leipzig during the protests in response to the verdict in the Antifa Ost trial. In addition to the thousandfold charge of "particularly serious breach of the peace" for simply taking part in the demonstration, he is accused of attempted manslaughter. The investigations and the arrest warrant became known on 23.11.2023, when the cops once again carried out a large-scale raid against the autonomous scene in Leipzig and tried in vain to kidnap him from a court case concerning the LuWi-71 occupation by masked MEK (Mobile police task force). Benni, the comrade condemned to pre-trial detention, did not appear in court that day, which turned out to be a great stroke of luck. He turned himself in on 05.01.24.

However, this was not a voluntary surrender, but rather the bitter realization that freedom ends as soon as his name appears on the arrest warrant.

Bima Satria Putra

On December 3, 2021, Bima (anarchist writer from Indonesia) and Krisna were arrested by the police for bringing 15 kg of dried marijuana from Aceh. Bima was sentenced to 15 years in prison, a subsidiary of 6 months based on the results of the trial verdict on April 13, 2022. He is still continuing his interdisciplinary historical research project and anarchist anthropological theoretical approach to a stateless society in the archipelago from behind bars with research that relies entirely on library research without observations and field visits. "Hingga Semua Penjara Rata dengan Tanah" (Until All Prisons are Flattened to the Ground) is a memoir that he wrote regularly during his sentence, chronicling his new journey and struggles in Indonesian prisons, trying to dismantle the rot and get rid of the wrecks of the Indonesian prison system.

In his own words:

Given the state's repressive policies to regulate what we consume and what we don't, and that my actions are motivated by more radical motives than just financial matters, I claim to be not only a narcotics prisoner, but also a political prisoner.

On November 29th Gage arrived at the prison where he'll most likely be doing the majority of his time in Ontario, Oregon which is out by the Idaho border.

If you're looking for different ways to engage with Gage when sitting down to write that first letter, here are a few things to keep in mind - not only is he an anti-fascist but he also is a radical environmentalist and an anarchist. So, discussing history, politics or the ideologies of those movements as well could be a good place to start.

In his own words:

"On September 24th and about 9 years after I had to violate my probation, I was arrested outside my house in Volos together with my wife Maria Theofilou right before the eyes of our two infant children. It is true that I have participated in some bank robberies, however I have not participated in all the ones I am accused of, or I will be accused of. The robberies I participated in were always well organized and demanded many months of planning therefore even if I wanted to, I could not be involved in so many."

On February 15, 2016 began the second trial concerning robberies accused of since 2002. The sentence from this case of up to 25 years will run consecutively with the previous sentence of 36 years.

Juan Flores Riquelme

Juan Flores is serving a sentence of 23 years, having been convicted by the Chilean state for incendiary attacks in 2014 claimed by the Conspiracy Cells of Fire & International Conspiracy of Revenge. On July 23, 2014 a CCF cell bombed "The Dominicans" station of the Santiago Metro, and on September 8, 2014 a shopping mall in Las Condes. In both instances, measures were taken to ensure the bombs would not hurt anyone, but in the former a bag containing the bomb was moved by a Metro employee, and in the latter the police ignored a warning call the CCF cell made

10 minutes before the bomb was set to go off. As a result, the attacks ended up injuring people, so the Chilean state was able to claim they were meant to terrorize the population, and used an anti-terrorism law to obtain maximum sentencing on March 15, 2018 after proclaiming Juan guilty of both attacks. Two other comrades, Nataly Casanova and Enrique Guzman, were initially charged alongside Juan, but after over three years of imprisonment and criminal proceedings were found not guilty on all counts.

Konstantinos Giagtzoglou

Anarchist comrade Konstantinos Giagtzoglou was arrested on October 28th 2017, while exiting a hideout rented by him under a false identity and while transferring guns and explosive materials. Ntinos is accused of being a member of the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire and for sending parcel bombs to various E.U. officials including the former prime minister of Greece, Loukas Papadimos. The cops' accusations are based on a mixed DNA sample and on the fact that Ntinos was visiting a former anarchist prisoner in Korydallos prison in early 2013. The comrade stated that both renting the flat and transferring the equipment were part of "revolutionary solidarity" and denies all other charges. Dinos was sentenced to a total of 11 years and 2 months' prison without parole.

Malik Farrad Muhammad

"My name is Malik Farrad Muhammad. I'm a 26-year-old black/Palestinian pansexual Muslim (yes, hella confusing). I'm an anarchist antifascist, anti-racist abolitionist (yes, both cops and prisons) for my love of freedom! My first protest was in high school: a walkout staged after Treyvon Martin's murder. From there, I never really got active again until "Bernie or Bust" and then, of course, the George Floyd uprising. I traveled the country and organized and fought and was ultimately kidnapped ransomed and now held prisoner here at OSP. I have a beautiful son, a beautiful wife and life partner, Jesse, who moved out here to Portland after my kidnapping by the feds, and a loving family back home in the Midwest. I'm also a veteran, I was a tanker in the army — and no, I'm not proud that I was part of the murder machine, so don't thank me for my service. I love music more than anything almost, am a guitarist and aspiring pianist, all genres.

Not much else to say except that I'm a lover of freedom, equity and equality, and will fight to my last breath for it. Unlike those who may regret a thing they did to get convicted or those who tempered their actions for fear of the consequences, I regret nothing, if only not doing more before I was caught. I will live for the people and I'll die for the people because I love the people, we who want freedom cannot rest till it comes."

Marcelo Villarroel Sepúlveda

Marcelo was a MAPU Lautaro member and political prisoner in the 1990s. Later, he was charged with taking part in the September 2007 Banco Santander robbery in Valparaíso and the October 2007 Banco Security robbery in Santiago during which repressive agent Luis Moyano died in a shootout while they were making their escape.

After a period as a fugitive, Villarroel was arrested on March 15, 2008 together with Freddy Fuentesvilla in Neuquen, Argentina. They were then deported to Chile on December 15, 2009. Freddy and Juan Aliste Vega were charged with the same, and were imprisoned for years awaiting trial and had it regularly postponed. On July 2, 2014, the 3 comrades were sentenced in their absence, having refused to assist in the judicial show, and gave their disposition by video link. Marcelo was sentenced to 14 years in prison for the assault on Santander Bank in Valparaíso and Banco Security. His cumulative sentence ends in 2056.

Marco Marino "Zac"

Anarchist Comrade Marco Marino, also known as Zac got arrested and accused of incendiary Attack against Greek Consulate in Italy.

On March 28, two houses, one in Napoli and one in Pozzuoli, were raided and four comrades were taken to the police station, in connection with a 270 bis investigation (anti-terrorist association), which was officialized in May 2022 following several house-searches.

Although the investigation is still ongoing, one comrade was placed under preventive arrest, accused of an arson attack against the Greek consulate in 2021. The prosecution contextualizes this attack within the campaign in solidarity with revolutionary Greek prisoner Dimitris Koufontinas, who at the time was on hunger strike.

The comrade has now been taken to the Secondigliano prison and is placed in the AS2 section (high security unit), while the three other comrades were released. According to the case's files, the timing of the arrest was influenced by the relentless solidarity actions with Alfredo Cospito, an anarchist prisoner currently on hunger strike against the 41 bis regime and life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

This operation is part of a witch hunt that wants to frame anarchists as a public enemy to be eliminated. In the context of the countless actions in solidarity with Alfredo in Italy and abroad, we clearly see this repressive blow as part of the state's attempt to stifle every and any spark of rebellion.

Michael Kimble is a black, gay anarchist serving a life sentence in Alabama for the murder of a white, homophobic, racist bigot. During his first years of imprisonment, Michael embraced communism, but soon moved away from it and toward anarchy because, as he describes it “anarchism is not about building a hierarchical structure for liberation somewhere in the distant future, but about living your life, now, in a fashion that’s liberating.” Michael has a long history of both individual and collective struggle against prison authority, and continues to engage in the fight against prison slave labour as part of the Free Alabama Movement.

Rainer Loehnert

Rainer Loehnert is 60 years old and has been locked up for more than 36 years in various prisons and mental houses, of which he has long been in isolation and on "secured stations". He is currently held in the forensic psychiatry in Bedburg-Hau (North Rhine-Westphalia). Rainer was admitted to a closed psychiatry by means of a "determined incapacity and negative danger prognosis according to section 63 of the Criminal Code" due to a personal injury that he suffered 37 years ago. This resulted in an unofficial, seemingly endless "preventive detention" and long-term overdose of psychotropic drugs. During his entire detention, Rainer's anti-fascist and anti-authoritarian attitudes, actions and acts of resistance were repeatedly pathologized as "morbid" and "delusional".

He opposed his unbroken will to defend himself against this prison System to the humiliation and terror of nurses, doctors, therapists, assessors, judges, etc. and other prisoners (neo-Nazis). The fights have cost him a lot of strength and nerves. In the three decades Rainer went on hunger strikes, attempted several escape attempts, and resisted various police units as well as provocations of the staff and fellow neo-Nazi prisoners.

He participated in the hunger strike in solidarity with the struggling Prisoners in Greece in July 2014, and has repeatedly denied medication and urine checks, what is often punished with solitary confinement or fixation, forced medication.

Rainer writes and reads very much, and expressing solidarity with various struggling (ex)prisoners, such as Marco Camenisch and Gabriel Pombo da Silva. He keeps or seeks contact, among others, with some anti-prison projects and individuals and informs himself about current (anti-domination) fights. He tries get in touch with (fighting) people from inside and outside of prison around the world. Rainer speculates about current (anarchist) struggles, especially in Europe, as well as anarchist newspaper projects, but also "classics" of anarchist theories and practices.

Ruslan Sidiki Kasemovich

You can send letters through the on-line service <https://prisonmail.online>. At the end of November, the anarchist Ruslan Siddiqui was arrested on suspicion of organising the derailment of a goods train in Ryazan province. On 2 December, the Dorogomilovsky district court in Moscow sent Ruslan to pre-trial detention.

Ruslan has now been charged with a "terrorist act" (Article 205 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation, parts 2.a and 2.v) and "possession of explosive material" (Article 222.1, part 3.a). He is threatened with between 12 and 30 years' imprisonment.

Ruslan's comrades have contacted the anti-war human rights initiative Solidarity Zone. This is how they described him: "As one mutual comrade said, 'Ruslan is a person of action'. And that's really it: Ruslan undertakes difficult tasks, without wasting words. He grasps the essence of any situation quickly and works out how to respond. As a friend he is always responsive, always ready to help. He loves adventure sports such as trekking and cycling marathons. He has travelled many times to the Chernobyl and Belarussian Exclusion Zones [established after the nuclear explosion in 1986, now uninhabited, richly forested areas].

Ruslan is a proponent of anarchist ideas, and the Russian military aggression against Ukraine distressed him greatly. All the more so because some of his friends and comrades died in that conflict, and people continue to die there. And now he himself has become a victim of state violence, and our support is important to him".

Ryan Dwyer and Ryan Roberts two anarchists are part of the Kill The Bill - prisoners.

What happened on 21st March 2021 was an outpouring of rage against the violence of the police. The crowd fought back after police officers attacked the crowd with batons and riot shields. Pepper spray was used indiscriminately, people were charged at with horses and hit over the head with batons and shields. The protesters fought back, seizing police riot shields, helmets and batons to defend themselves. By the end of the evening several police vehicles had been set on fire.

Those who defended themselves against the police have been branded 'thugs' and 'wild animals' by both Priti Patel and the police spokesperson. The police have been out for revenge for what happened at Bridewell ever since. That revenge has come in the form of the brutality used against the Kill the Bill protests in Bristol on March 23rd and 26th. And in the use of riot charges – the most serious public order charge available in English law punishable by a maximum of ten years in prison – against those who fought back on March 21st.

Toby Shone

Toby Shone is an anarchist who was imprisoned in Wandsworth, Bristol and G4S Prison Parc for nearly two years accused of being the administrator of counter-information project 325.nostate.net. After the political prosecution failed and the cops had to drop the case 5 days before trial in October 2021, Toby received a sentence of 3 years 9 months for possession of psychedelic medicines. He was released on 28 December 2022 under heavy restrictions (license conditions), oversight by a multi-agency team (MAPPA) including the National Security Division (counter-terror) and was forced to live in a filthy bail hostel in Gloucester for 9 months. He had just moved back into a flat in the Forest of Dean in Gloucestershire 9 days ago.

On the morning of September 19, 2023, he was driving to an appointment with his probation officer when he was pulled over and arrested by an armed police unit in-between the Forest of Dean and Gloucester. He was taken to HMP Bristol after being accused of being in possession of an [unauthorised] phone and attending a dinner and prisoner letter writing night at BASE anarchist social centre in Bristol in August.

He has since been moved 265 kilometres from his home in Forest of Dean, Gloucestershire and nearly 300 kilometres from support in Bristol to HMP Garth in Leyland, a high security prison near Manchester. Despite being in the resettlement part of his sentence, a vengeful probation and counter-terror team are attempting to isolate Toby from his perceived support base and loved ones in the south of the country and deliberately place him at risk of harm in a notoriously violent Category B prison for those serving sentences of 10 years or more. Probation has demanded Toby serve the rest of his sentence which is just short of 13 months, due for release on 11 November 2024.

The Network Case (Russia)

In October 2017, FSB officers arrested six antifascists who played airsoft in the woods. The FSB planted weapons and explosives in some of their vehicles, and tortured them in pre-trial detention– beating them, hanging them upside down, electrocuting them, and threatening them with even worse. This torture was used to force the arrestees to validate forged testimony professing that they are part of an alleged terrorist “network.” At the end of January 2018, four more antifascists were arrested in St. Petersburg. They were also beaten, tortured by means of electrical shock, and forced to agree that they too were members of this invented “network.”

In January 2019, Igor Shiskin was sentenced to 3.5 years of imprisonment. His case was considered individually as he entered into a plea bargain. In February 2020, Dmitry Pchelintsev received 18 years, Ilya Shakursky 16 years, Arman Sagynbaev 6 years, Andrei Chernov 14 years, Vasily Kuksov 9 years, Mikhail Kulkov 10 years, and Maxim Ivankin 13 years of imprisonment. In June 2020, St. Petersburg’s military court sentenced Viktor Filinkov to 7 years and Yuli Boyarshinov to 5.5 years in a penal colony (commuted to 5 years 3 months).

Below are listed the comrades who identify as anarchists. ABC Moscow and Rupression solidarity campaign are only supporting six of ten prisoners. You can find their statements and information about other defenders on www.rupression.com/en/

*Sending letters to Belarus. Political prisoners in Belarus are reporting non-delivery and destruction of mail coming from comrades even inside the country. You can try to send the letters anyway, but take pictures of them and send them to belarus_abc@riseup.net – ABC-Belarus will pass them to relatives or lawyers. Alternatively, use an online form on their website <https://abc-belarus.org/en/send-an-online-letter-to-a-prisoner/?lang=en>

Sending letters to Russia. Censorship in Russian pre-trial detention centres and correctional facilities forbids prisoners to correspond in foreign languages. Please use online translators to compose a message in Russian. Discussing a criminal case, radical statements, even conveying news and opinions about Russian military aggression against Ukraine can lead to pressure and the imposition of penalties on the prisoner. Of course, you are free to write whatever you want, but try to formulate your message in such a way that it does not harm the recipient. The letter can also be sent online through the volunteer resource <https://rosuznik.org/>. It's easier and free, and the answer will come to your email in a scanned form. RosUznic project exists only on donations, you can find more information on how to support the project on their website.

If you are writing to prisoners outside of organised solidarity events, find out if it is possible to send letters to the Russian Federation from your region. If impossible, you can scan the message or postcard and send it to abc-msk\(at\)riseup.netriseup.net). The activist team in Russia will print out all the material received and send it to the prisoners.
